Dallas Accounting Firm Announces New Partner

(Dallas, TX) June 1, 2011– Salmon Sims Thomas & Associates admits Eileen Keller into ownership of the firm.

Keller has 25 years public accounting experience and is nationally known for her specialization in audit and accounting services for career schools and colleges. Keller joined the firm in 1999 as senior auditor and quickly moved up to the position of director which she has held for the last 5 years. Prior to joining Salmon Sims Thomas, Keller was director of finance for a Dallas/Fort Worth metroplex career school.

As partner, Keller shares responsibility for leadership, growth and client service. She will continue to serve as the firm's director of career services overseeing the management of career school audit and engagements.

Managing partner Ron Salmon says, "Eileen has outstanding credentials in her field. Her experience represents the solid expertise found throughout the Salmon Sims Thomas team. She also has a talent for creating lasting relationships with her clients. Elevating her to owner reflects the respect of her colleagues at the firm. The recognition is well deserved."

Keller earned her BBA in accounting from the University of Texas at Arlington in 1986. She is a member of The Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants and actively involved in several career school associations.
