Bill Sims Serves As Exchange Club President

Dallas, Texas – Partner and head of the nonprofit team, Bill Sims, is an active participant on many boards and charity organizations. One of these is the Exchange Club of Lake Highlands where he serves as president.

Located in East Dallas, Lake Highlands has been Bill's home for 26 years. The Exchange Club works to make communities better places to live through programs of service in Americanism, Community Service, Youth Activities, and its national project, the Prevention of Child Abuse.

Bill is a believer that people should have equity in their community. Bill stated, "If they are engaged and involved, then they will be motivated to give back. It's the same reason that we take joy, pride, happiness, and even pain in our kids' or grandkids' lives -- because we're invested in them. I want our members to feel that way about their community."

Bill graduated from Baylor. He is married and has two children.
