Team Members Give Time To The Volunteer Center

A scorching day in Dallas didn't dampen the enthusiasm of several SST employees who turned out to help create "Christmas in July" at the Volunteer Center of North Texas. This annual event allows the Center's member agencies and their employees to shop for new merchandises at tremendously reduced prices.

While Bill Sims, Russell Perry and Edgardo Canales set up various inflatable yard displays, wreaths, and artificial Christmas trees, Jackie Miller and Toni Sexton stocked shelves, decorated Christmas trees and staged the entrance – complete with decorated Christmas tree, an artificial fireplace with stockings and even a working Christmas Ferris wheel.

About the Volunteer Center of North Texas

The Volunteer Center of North Texas (VCNT), founded in 1971, is one of the largest and most active volunteer centers in the country. A primary purpose of VCNT is to recruit volunteers, including individuals, corporations and civic and faith-based groups, to serve nonprofits and their clients throughout the North Texas area.
