Still waiting for your IRS refund?

You can generally expect the IRS to issue your refund in 6 - 8 weeks after they receive your tax return. If you are still waiting, you can track your refund using this handy tool.

Click here for status of your federal refund:

The IRS makes the following recommendations before you check the site:

- Have the right tax information ready before using any of the IRS refund tools. This includes Social Security number, filing status and refund amount.
- You don't need to check "Where's My Refund?" more than once a day as your information will not change.
- To avoid system delays, the best time to check on refunds is evening and weekends.
- There is no need to call the IRS about your refund; the telephone service has the same information that is available on "Where's My Refund?"

Please let us know if we can assist you in this process.

Integrated auxiliaries can protect your church from liability

Written by Ryan Peak, Staff Counsel

Does your church have multiple outreach ministries?

As integral parts of their community, churches often have numerous local outreach programs: day care centers, schools, athletics programs, prison ministries, homeless shelters, food pantries, and the like. Each of these organizations comes with inherent risks of liability for which a church may not be adequately prepared or protected. Do you understand the risks? Should your outreach programs be operated as separate tax-exempt organizations called 'Integrated Auxiliaries'? Click here to learn more.

Suite Success!

After 21 years in the same office space, Ron Salmon said, "It's time to move!" And on May 6th, the offices of Salmon Sims Thomas moved from Suite 900 to Suite 500 in the same building.

We're thankful for the growth of our firm that propels us to a new-to-us floor in the same building. But mostly, we're thankful for the relationships we have with our many clients - relationships that span many years and new clients that join us every month. Please come visit us in our new offices.

Everyone helped on moving day.

Focused on your success,

Thank you for your continued trust in us. We are always looking for clients like you. If someone you know needs a tax, audit or consulting partner, we hope you will keep us in mind.
